OUR PHILOSOPHY

A Message From The Team To You

We exist to heal what is in the way of your untapped human potential with true health, connection and authentic happiness providing excellence in holistic care and treatment that is exclusive to Alive since 2009.

We don't support dry clinical approaches to addiction or mental health or talk endlessly about 'what is wrong with you' - instead we rapidly heal at the core of you and every area of your life what is in the way of you living a life you love THRIVING as the best possible version of yourself regardless of the issues you are currently facing.

We Believe...You are only scratching the surface of the impact you could have (no matter how successful or wealthy you are). It's easy to make the "impossible" happen than... lose connection, lose yourself, over complicate or sabotage and using substances to deal with what you face daily.

Alive is a powerful collective system built for high achievers & high net worth individuals to grow into their Fully Aligned, Fully Expressed, True Human Potential to serve in an Unlimited Way in health, life, personal relationships, business and their true legacy with ease and happily do it sober. For those on the way up who want a proven system, those already there who need to realign and those who have fallen and are ready to reset. This is a tools based, fully supported program that amplifies every area of your life in record time with record results.

There are three key philosophies you will align with during your retreat and ongoing life integration program with full support:

1. Reset

Clean Up What's In The Way Of A Present Happy Mind, Heal Internally, Rejuvenate Health & Regain Your Inner Power To Build An Unbreakable Relationship With Yourself.

2. Revive

Create & Lead In Your Own Lane With True Presence & Connection Not Chaos & Confusion. Ignite Your Passion For Life & Reconnect To Your Purpose, Others & The World Around You.

3. Recreate

Amplify Your Exponential Impact Without Losing Yourself. Create A Life, Business & World You Love.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

"I'm not lonely, but I feel very alone..." are words that we often hear from our clients, some of the most fascinating people on the planet. It's often lonely playing at the top where detachment and loss of meaning are par for course. We've found our clients scrambling to maintain their mental health and sense of self with multiple managers, unhelpful therapy, masking with medication or self medicating, rebelling, employing consultants and coaches to hold their lives together but with mediocre results - we do that for you in one place with zero distraction & recreate your life moving forward.

Most people think...that when they have enough money, success, or recognition, they'll finally be 'happy'. The truth is...you can have everything you ever wanted but still feel empty inside and lose yourself in the doing of life, relationships and pressure.

Most people think...that success means no longer having to feel fear. The truth is...successful people head in the direction of their fear and often use it to catapult their success, avoid showing weakness not realising that this limited way of being will eventually negate exponential success on all levels - not just in what you do but in many other life areas - including eroding the relationship you have with yourself. And it is at this point that we are reality slapped and usually mentally and emotionally the unravelling begins. Hiding and numbing becomes 'normal'.

When you transform your relationship to fear, feelings & reactions & step into flow that can only be found from pulling back - your potential, true sense of self & direction exponentially grows with the kind of ease and effectiveness you have always desired but never knew how to create. And you get to create with clarity and confidence using a system for doing life at the top that truly works - even when sober.

You are more than what you do, what you know and what you have - we tap into the core of who you truly are and nurture every aspect of what it is you need so your unique genius and way of being and serving in the world happens with ease.

ABOUT YOU

Many of our clients are dealing with an immense amount of pressure and responsibility in their lives that no one else really understands. Even those closest to them can never fully grasp their potential and the pressure that comes with it or why the need to escape it.

Some have extreme wealth and freedom and have lost direction or buckle under the immense responsibility. Some have found fame or wealth quickly and are struggling to deal with the pressure. Some struggle to deal with their extreme potential and creative abilities and a mind that never stops. Some are extremely bored, enabled and disconnected. Most are yes'd to death and their behavior isn't truthfully being called out.

Every client is unique.

And we understand you uniquely, without judgement and with pure skill we help you transform.

Whether you are crumbling under pressure, losing your identity, lost all meaning or outsourcing your anxiety in ways that don't serve you... without judgement we support you to recover yourself, your life and your direction in record time. Everyday therapy & dry clinical approaches don't work for extraordinary people with extraordinary circumstances.

That's why we exist.

We meet you at your level, we are honest and direct in our approach and we connect to who you really are without judgement, with warmth and skill and with full support. It is for this reason our high net worth clients have us 'outside their circle' but working closely with them behind the scenes for good reason. We are the glue that holds you together regardless of circumstances. We look forward to working with you in privacy to elevate your potential in all areas of life and to ensure you build an unbreakable relationship with yourself AND the journey is actually fun and inspiring every step of the way.

We only ask that you pass on the impact that you receive from this program to the masses using your reach and ability to transform the lives of others in small or big ways.

Reconnect. Rediscover. Realign. Recreate.

WHAT'S THE PROBLEM?

THE 4 BIGGEST ISSUES OUR CLIENTS FACE ARE:
DISCONNECTION. EXHAUSTION. MISIDENTIFIED. FEAR

Are you powerful and passionate with a track record of taking consistent risks and action that leads towards big results that wow? Even in doing that is it never enough?

Do you have or had the success, crave more of it yet crave something more outside of it? Do you often wonder how to simplify and where all the meaning actually lives in what you've created or do on a daily basis? Do you feel disconnected to who you really are and are living with identities and masks to maintain the success you've experienced?

Do you know and like who you are outside of what you know, what you have and what you do? Do you often wonder who you are without it and if that version of you is enough? Is escapism in any form your favourite past time?

The single biggest challenge you face as an elite high achiever is that your game is so much bigger than that of anyone around you. Even if you were born into it. You play at a level at which most people cannot even fathom. This comes with a lot of pressure and a lot of anxiety whether you recognise it or not.

As a team we are experts at taking VIP's from around the world to the greatest levels of success externally whilst connecting them internally so they experience the best of both worlds. In sports, music, performing arts, business, fashion, TV - anyone who plays at the highest possible level.

And here's what we know about you:

Despite your success—actually, because of it—doing more of what you're already doing is not going to lead to your next level of success & it doesn't bring the internal fulfilment you see slipping through your fingers. In fact, the very qualities that have led to your current success are precisely what hold you back from even greater levels of accomplishment - and they also lack the ability to give you the true connection, meaning, richness and fulfilment internally that you seek. In other words the gifts that got you to where you are in fact, become your greatest challenges:

WHAT'S THE PROBLEM?

Our clients are:

Under immense pressure with a lot of responsibility

With so much riding on you to be at the top of your game, hold up status or maintain wealth to support so many others sometimes the pressure becomes too much and eventually some form of sabotage kicks in to escape all that weight.

Can't stop or the wheels fall off...

Our clients rarely stop and are rarely truly present or calm. And they rarely are connected to who they truly are as a human worthy of just being able to be themselves. If the rug is pulled out from under you tomorrow - who are you beyond what you do & what you have? Do you realise and truly believe that you are valuable just as you are without the need to maintain an identity, wealth or creation?

Can't show fear or weakness...

This is especially true for those in performing arts or sports. If they are vulnerable about their inner breakdowns it can lead to losing everything. This leads to a lot of hiding, pretending, suppression and eventually a break down of some sort as their emotions eventually get the better of them. What gets pushed down or away grows force and eventually comes to the surface to be healed requiring your attention - and ours.

Losing everything has catastrophic outcomes ...

We get it. What you have and have created and what is riding on you being you is a lot to deal with - and if it is all lost what does that say about you and what will it mean to all those dependent on you? The need to maintain control at all costs - including your sanity is common for our high performers.

Live with multiple identities and lose themselves in power, status & wealth...

When we work with you we connect to who you truly are. But for many of our clients who they truly are is often hidden, masked or separated for them to function. When you can show up as your authentic self without fear - this is truly how we win the game of life.

Lack trust in others...

We work with you and for your greatest good - but we are not dependent on you. But with all those who are dependent on you and needy of what it is you bring to the table it becomes hard for you to really connect or trust anyone even in your inner circle. This is a lonely place to be so we help you protect you from what is expected of you.

WHAT'S THE PROBLEM?

Cannot get personal help easily...

Even with all the freedom and wealth you have acquired – getting personal, private and truly confidential support for your mental, physical and spiritual health is actually quite difficult – especially having those people all work together for the greater good of you and not just what you do. Almost all of our clients don't have an external team supporting them physically, mentally, emotionally and energetically in a way that they love, a team that has their back outside their circle or a team they can access easily to truly nurture them as a human. Usually by the time we meet it's breaking point. It's important our VIP's choose us and resonate with the team that is hand picked to support them in their personal life.

Where did all the meaning and fulfilment go?

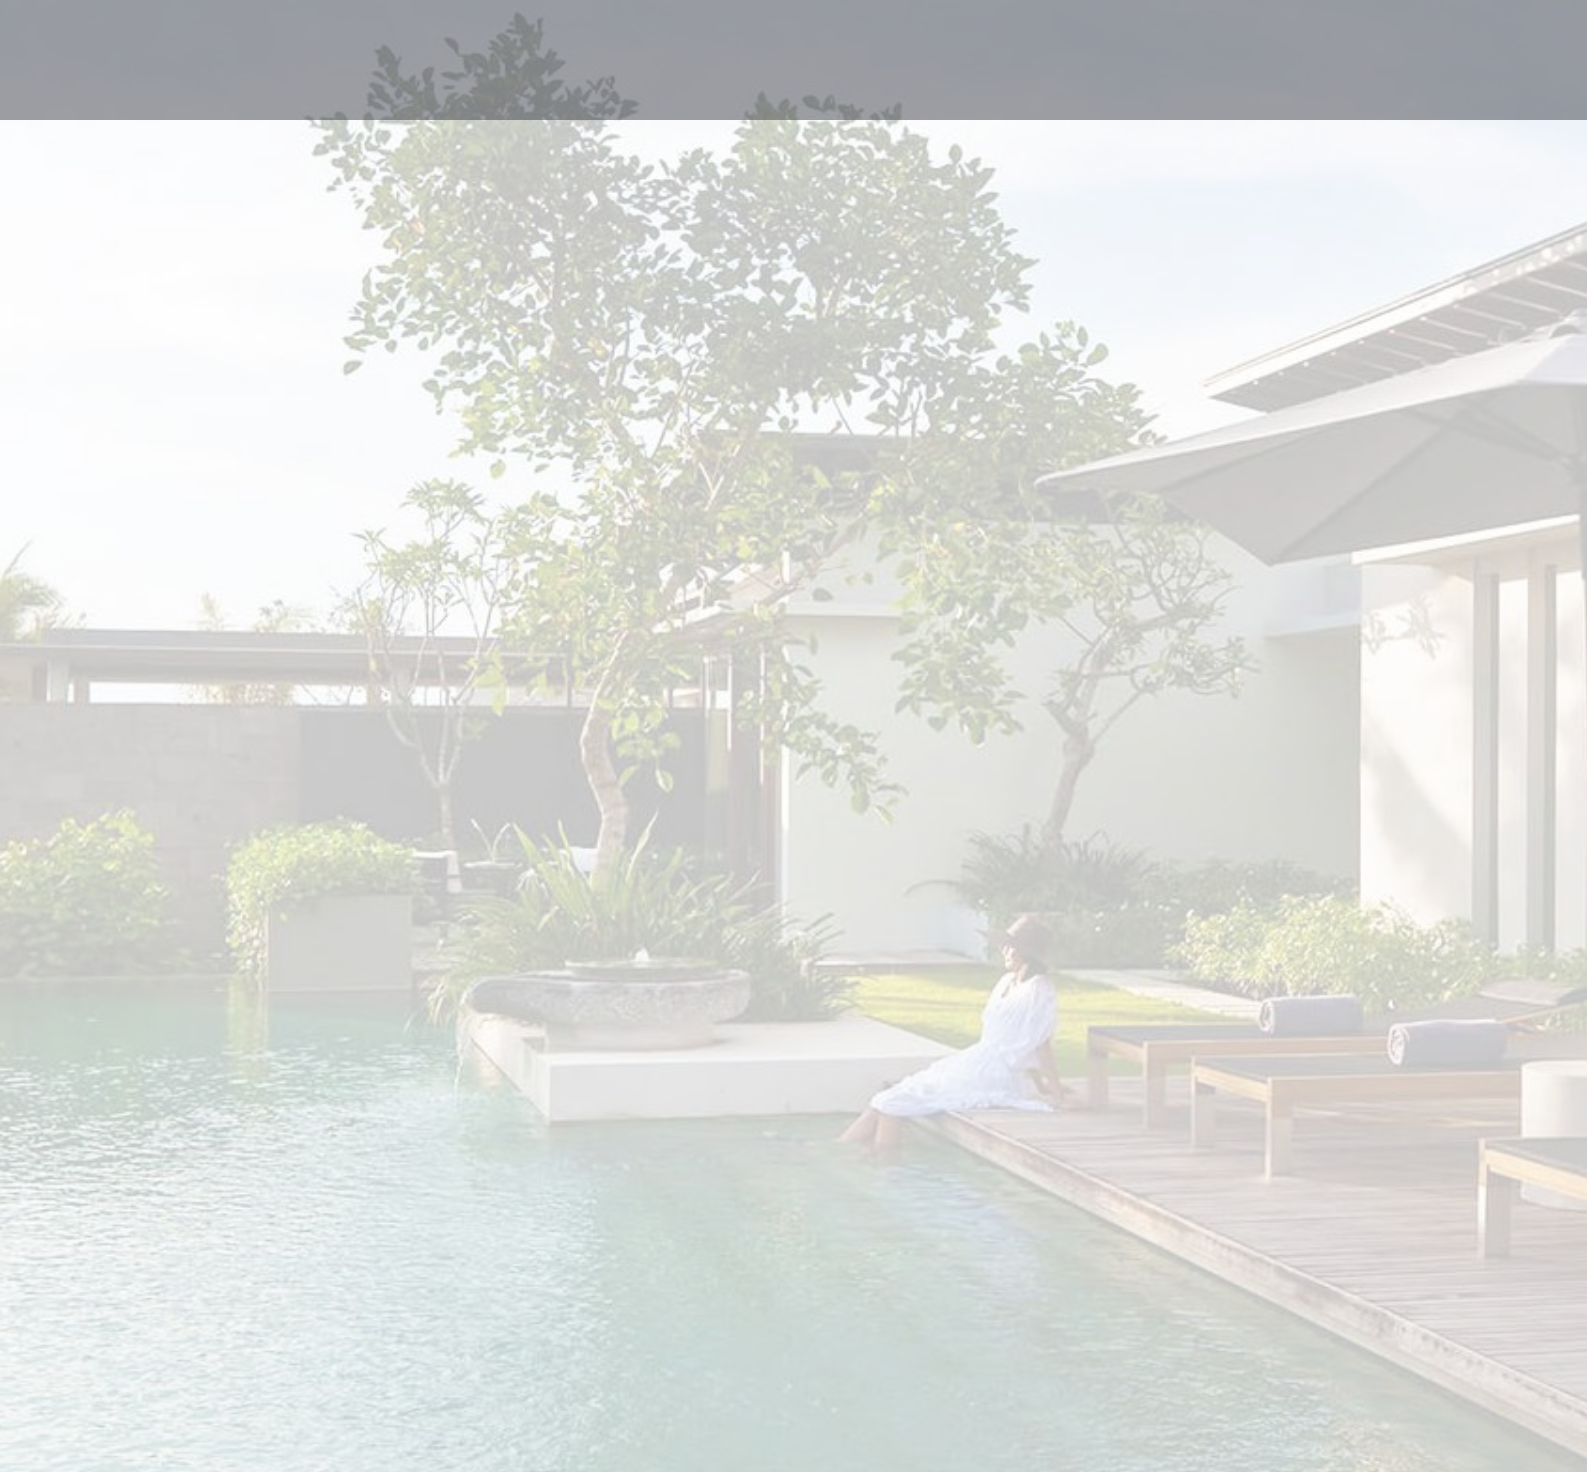

Many of our clients feel detached from real meaning, fulfilment and internal joy. Even if they have everything they feel starved for a connection with themselves and life. Real joy and meaning lives in tapping into the present moment without the need to change it in anyway. It is in that moment that contentment, inspiration and bubbles of joy come to the surface but rarely are they able to be in this space. We take you there over and over to bring back the internal well spring of meaning you desire.

No one tells you the truth....

With so many people dependent on you and with the power you have accumulated and the identity you have created to protect it all you often end up in the seat of control with those around you which means you no longer are being held responsible for your behaviour or actions. This leads to a lack of growth and you end up operating outside integrity. Our clients appreciate our direct, real and raw ability to tell them the truth of what we see and support we offer unconditionally to help them become their greatest self.

We are here to help you pull back from life, disconnect and receive the full support needed in every area of your life and personal wellbeing so that you can live as the greatest version of yourself.

MEET THE TEAM

ABOUT US

They say it takes a village to raise a child.

We believe it takes a team to heal rapidly - we get you results in weeks not years.

Our team are here to focus on you only and together we support you in a way you cannot imagine only working with 1 guest at a time.

With unconditional love & understanding, zero judgement, absolute skill and a program that is proven to work over and over together we work on transforming each part of you in record time.

It is an honour to be apart of your journey and to share in your transformation and it is with much gratitude that our entire team welcomes you to 'retreat' and congratulates you on choosing to give yourself this gift.

The Alive Program and Journey is unique to each individual as each person has had a unique life path that has brought them to this very moment.

Our program is 100% holistic designed to not only heal the issues for good but to ensure you become skilled with life long tools to be the greatest and most empowered version of yourself.

It is for this reason - using tools not more talk - and an empowering process that our clients receive extraordinary results that sees them transforming all areas of their life in record time.

Our clients love what we do because it is non clinical. This means we use clinical processes but our process is non clinical. We use what is helpful and empowering and for this reason our clients are inspired by the therapies and therapists, tools and learning an empowered way of being and living that lasts a lifetime.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

RECENT TESTIMONIALS

3 Bottles of Vodka a Day. Divorce. Previous Rehabs Didn't Work But This Does.

I was groomed to be successful, I became extremely successful as planned. But I never learned to deal with the extreme success I created and all the people that I was responsible for and through it all I lost myself and who I really was - COMPLETELY. Many bottles of vodka later and many many relationship and legal issues I sought out Alive. I worked with the team 3 months prior to arrival and within 2 weeks of a my LIVE program I was in awe of the care, love and support and the real tools to re create every single aspect of my life from business, children, family, staff and most importantly I learned more about myself and my needs than I ever could of in a lifetime. I am now the 'light house' and not the 'life boat'. I have every single tool needed to act in the real world when I need it. I am emotionally stronger, I have rectified some very serious health issues, I had zero detox symptoms which still amazes me how they did it without medication, I am centred and I am 100% ready to take on the world, to create again with the support of the team in the real world to recreate every aspect of my life. Most importantly I now have a support team with a lot of skill and a lot of fun we are making these changes happen in real life where it matters most. The new me (or old me) is back!

Adam, 52, Australia, Property Investor, Alcohol Rehab Program

Reconnection to Family, Faith & Life

I was never equipped with the tools to deal with being a billionaire. I was also never taught to deal with my own mind and all the needs of others constantly around me. I found Alive after searching for months. I arrived within 2 days completely exhausted after binging for 2 years constantly on a range of drugs. I detoxed naturally with the support of quite a few team members and therapies with no real symptoms.

Alive helped me reconnect to the faith I had lost in myself and my religion. Over a month I was able to rebuild my health and see clearly how I was running from the needs of others. I think the most important thing I walked away with was the ability to speak up, set boundaries and say no which I previously could not do.

The team are very straight forward and direct and each person gets into to a different part of your life and takes action with you to create the changes whilst there. My therapist for direct and fun and I couldn't wait for every session - I just wanted more and more.

I am now back to focusing on what matters most - faith and family and my own purpose instead of getting lost in helping others out of guilt. Because of this I have no need to hide or numb with drugs. I've learned that purpose is the true healer of anxiety and addiction and I now have a system to manage all I have created. Thank you to the whole team.

D.K. 42, Malaysia, Drug Addiction Program

Anxiety Gone. Relationship Saved. Business Sailing.

Having made a lot of money young I had no idea how to handle life, relationships or what I had created.

I was so anxious I couldn't attend my own wedding.

From the first conversation you just got me. I couldn't get on the plane fast enough.

The tools you have given me for every area of life are like a gift that just keeps on giving. I've been free of anxiety for months now, you've helped me heal my relationship and restructure my whole life and business now centred around my health, purpose and love of life.

Thank you team. Couldn't keep doing it all without you.

RECENT TESTIMONIALS

I've never experienced this level of support

After 20 years of parenting and business and putting myself last - it all caught up.
If I didn't find you I would've fallen over.
I was really starting to drop the ball in areas of life.
Within just a week I simply couldn't believe the change in my thoughts, stress, body, energy and a sense of pure happiness coming back.
I connected to each and every one of you and I have never met such a caring, knowledgeable, skilled group of professionals that can literally turn someone's life around with so much ease.
I've never received this level of support before and didn't even know it existed.
I am so passionate about what you do I'm quickly spreading the word in the middle east.
What you do is needed everywhere.
Thank you team. I have the greatest respect for your work.

Ayman, 50's, Investment Banker, De Stress Retreat

I'm just ringing to say thank you...

I rang today...not because I am depressed or medicated again. But to tell you all the exciting things that have happened in my life since my first retreat. As you know I've done 2 retreats with you.
The first you picked me up off the floor and I left an abusive marriage. I found my self again.
The second you help me set my life, wealth and business on fire.
Who would've thought I would be free of such severe depression, trauma and being trapped.
Who knew I would go on to create all the businesses, wealth, passion and plans we set out to?
You believed it, I wasn't sure. But look at it now all in play. I'm living proof of what you do.
Being an empowered Arabic women is rare. I am now a role model for others to believe in themselves and live a life of passion and freedom.
I love the Alive team who I consider family. I can never express my gratitude in words but I just rang today to say Thank you from the bottom of my heart for the life I get to live.

Fatma, 30's, Entrepreneur, Depression Retreat

Thank you for the new lease on life

Minutes into our conversation I knew you were the right team for me.
Addicted, exhausted, broken, marriage falling apart, losing my business and life.
It seemed insurmountable and I didn't where to start.
Luckily you weren't scared at all and quickly got to work.
Within one week my energy was back and we cleaned up the mess. Heidi works fast & directs her team with grace to do what needs to be done in every area of your life.
The most crucial thing you helped me see was that all I was trying to fix was not at all aligned with what mattered to me. 3 months since retreat I am physically a different person with a totally new lease on life. It would take pages to describe all the changes. It's pure magic. A heartfelt thank you doesn't cut it.
How could I every express how grateful I am?

RECENT TESTIMONIALS

I have my life back

My manager found you. I was skeptical to say the least. I was a shadow of myself and unable to produce or create at that point. My career was near over.

Years of tours, creation, so many people and moving parts. I was just done.

Heidi you carefully pulled my life & business apart and put it back together seamlessly taking years of stress off my shoulders. The team worked their magic and mentally all the strain lifted and the focus returned like a river of creativity.

Having you all by my side for the last year since has made my job easier, my team happier and my brand profitable. I have my life & sanity back.

I'm not sure what we would do without you. Gratitude for all that you do.

Carlo, 30's, Musician, Burn Out & Addiction Retreat

Life Saving

When I made the decision to finally get clean (again) I was dreading rehab. My sister found you and thank god she did. Everything from day 1 just made sense. It's hard to describe in words how everything you do works together - it just does. I've never met such inspiring people so deeply committed to what they do and received this level of unconditional love and care - not even from my own family. Months later I have no urges or desires & my sense of self is strong. I'm proud of my journey and I'm running with the lessons I've learnt free from the guilt. The physical fitness and transformation so fast has been a huge motivator for me to maintain. I've let go of all the toxic people and the career is finally sailing.

How do you say thank you in words for all of that? But thank you a million times over.

Hans, 20's, Photographer, Addiction Retreat

5 Stars - Liberating!

Liberating, educational, empowering. My heart brought me here and now I trust it again. I am incredibly grateful and have had the most transformative weeks of my life.

I'm leaving with a new approach to life. I will refer to everyone I know.
